Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Goods referred to herein are carried subject to the terms and conditions provided for in the Carrier's applicable Bill of Lading and its tariff, both of which may be inspected at the Carrier's offices or at those of his authorized agents. Every reference in the Carrier's applicable Bill of Lading and its tariff to the words "Bill of Lading" shall mean "Non-negotiable Waybill(s)" and the terms and conditions thereof shall be read and construed accordingly.
The shipper accepts and agrees to bound by all the terms, conditions and exceptions of this Sea waybill and the applicable Bill of Lading and tariff both on his own behalf and on behalf of the consignee and the owner of the goods and warrants that he has authority to do so. It is further agreed that in the event of conflict between the terms, conditions and exceptions of this Waybill(s) at the Carrier's applicable Bills of Lading the waybill terms, conditions and exceptions will prevail.
This Non-negotiable Waybill shall have effect subject to the Hague Rules contained in the International Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules Relating to Bill of Lading, dated the 25th August, 1924 as enacted in the country of shipment. When no such enactment is in force in the country of shipment, the corresponding legislation of the country of destination shall apply, but in respect of shipment to which no such enactments are compulsorily applicable, the terms of the said Convention shall apply. The Carrier shall be entitled to the benefits of all privileges, right and immunities contained in the said Convention in respect of the Goods whether carried on or under deck and before the goods are loaded on and after they discharged from the vessel and throughout the entire time the Goods are in the actual custody of Carrier. In trades where the International Brussels Convention 1924 as amended by the Protocol signed at Brussels on February 23rd 1968-the Hague-Visby Rules-apply compulsorily, the provision of the respective legislation shall be considered incorporated in this Waybill(s).
Neither the Carrier nor the ship shall in any event be or become liable for any loss or damage to the goods in amount exceeding one hundred (100) pounds sterling (monetary unit) prepackage or unit, unless the value of the Goods higher than this amount is declared in writing by the shipper before shipment and the nature and the value thereof inserted in the Non negotiable Waybill and extra freight and other charges paid as provided for by the Carrier's tariff. Where a container is used for carriage of the Goods under this Waybill, such container shall be considered one package or one unit irrespective the number of package or unit enumerated in this Waybill as being packed in the container.
Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Waybill(s), delivery of the Goods will be made only to the consignee named on the face hereof, or his authorized agents, on production of such proof of identity as required by the Carrier. Notice of arrival of the Goods will, in the absence of other instructions, be sent to the consignee, or, at the election of the Carrier, the person to be notified, by ordinary methods. The Carrier is not liable for non-receipt or delay on the dispatch of such notice.
(1) When the Goods are held in the Carrier's custody and only before the Consignee claims their delivery after their arrival at the place of delivery, the Shipper may request the Carrier, on also by paying to the Carrier such reasonable remuneration as demanded by the Carrier and indemnifying him against all expenses, loss and damage which may be incurred by him by complying with such request re-route the Goods, and to deliver the Goods, and to deliver the Goods to some other person than the Consignee indicated in the Waybill at any stage of the transit as well as to change the place of delivery of the Goods.
(2) However, the Carrier may refuse the above requests if the requests interfere with his normal or intended operations, or if they are not practically possible to comply with at the time when the requests reach the Carrier, or if damage or substantial inconvenience would be caused to hi, or consignees of other consignments.
(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) above, the shipper may make an irrevocable declaration in writing to the Carrier, and if the Carrier thereafter comply with such requests, the shipper shall indemnify the Carrier from all loss, damage, or consequences whatever sustained by the Carrier by his compliance with the requests.
Any disputes, controversies, or differences which may arise between the parties, out of or in relation to or in connection with this waybill or for the breach thereof, shall be finally settled by arbitration in Seoul, Korea in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the Korean Commercial Arbitration Board.
